Says Ex-Mayor Carter H. Harrison of Chicago who spent Wednesday in Santa Fe, to a representative of the Santa Fe New Mexican.

New Mexico is rapidly growing commonwealth in Union and fully entitled to single statehood. "Since my visit here a year ago I have kept up with the progress of New Mexico as I am a constant reader of the New Mexican and I know that I am safe in saying that New Mexico is the fastest growing commonwealth in the U. S. today. The best classes of industrious people from every state in the union are flocking into your territory. I earnestly hope that you will be the better in the territory just in one year's time and I presume a year later one will see still greater improvements in every nook and corner of this great land of future.

I think you people ought to get immediate statehood and separate from Arizona. You are entitled to it and I am glad to do everything in my power towards getting statehood for New Mexico. Of course, I am a democrat and have not much influence with the members of congress as a Republican has, but the little I can do for New Mexico I shall do. I feel that it is a shame for so grand a territory as New Mexico and with as great a population of liberty loving american citizens, as the territory has, to be barred from joining the sisterhood of states. I hope most sincerely that a year from now another star, New Mexico's, will shine brighter than any of them on the great American flag."

Synopsis of the U. S.

Government Land Law

All men and women over 21 years of age, widows, and persons under 21 years of age who are the heads of families, who are not owners of more than 160 acres of land, who are citizens or have declared their intention to become citizens of the United States are qualified to make a homestead entry.

Not later than six months from date of entry the homestead claimant must establish his residence upon the land, and after fourteen months of actual residence, if he has resided upon and cultivated the land, can commute or pay for the land at the rate of $1.25 per acre, when the claimant will receive patent to the land from the government. If claimant does not wish to commute, he can reside continuously upon the land five years, and upon filling proof that he has done so, will receive a patent to the land.

Soldiers who served in the war of the rebellion, the Spanish or the Philippine wars are entitled to have the time of service not exceeding four years counted as residence on the land.

The widow of a deceased soldier who never used his homestead right, can make a soldier's homestead entry and is required to reside personally on the land for one year. If a widow of a deceased soldier has died or again married, his minor children, through a guardian, can make a soldier's homestead entry.

If a homestead claimant dies, the land goes to the widow, if he leaves one; if not to his heirs. Neither the widow nor the heirs are required to live on the land but must keep up the improvements.

Any homesteader, who by failure of crops, sickness or any other unavoidable casualty is unable to make a living for himself and family on his claim, can secure a leave of absence not exceeding one year. When a leave of absence is granted, the time the settler is absent must be made up at the end of five years residence and cultivation required by law.
